

President's XI (List 3, 2012)

Quick and Easy Costumes for Children's Book Week.

Participate in the fun of Book Week by dressing up in one of these easy to assemble costumes.

1. Mary Poppins – an old coat, pair of boots, hat, umbrella and bag.
2. Where's Wally – red-and-white striped t-shirt, jeans, beanie, walking stick.
3. Harry Potter – academic gown, glasses, stick (to use as a wand). Draw the scar with eyebrow pencil.
4. Voldemort – black top and jeans or leggings, pale swim cap, micropore tape to cover your nose – see photo.
5. The Rainbow Fish – cut large scales out of coloured foil (available from craft shops) and safety pin to t-shirt and pants.
6. Pippi Longstocking – long striped socks, hair in plaits.
7. Dorothy from Wizard of Oz – pretty dress, apron, red shoes, toy dog.
8. Wicked witch – pointed hat, green hair, false nose.
9. Pirate – eye patch, striped t-shirt, waistcoat, plastic sword, scarf on head.
10. Three Little Pigs – cut off piece of egg carton, paint pink, attach elastic. Headband with pink ears, curly pink pipe-cleaner tail.
11. Dalmatian – protective suit (approx $5 from Bunnings) use paint or black texta to make patches, dog collar, ears and nose.

