

DID YOU KNOW?

Mike Speechley is one of our rising stars in WA. His first book The all new must have Orange 430 is shortlisted in the Picture Book category of the CBCA Book of the Year awards and copies sold out before morning tea on the first day of the recent CBCA Conference in Canberra!

Mark Greenwood is shortlisted in the Eve Pownall category for his book The Happiness Box which is also on the shortlist for the WA Premier's Book Awards. Mark will also be the guest speaker at our CBCA WA Branch Book Week Dinner on Friday 16 August so put that date in your diaries as it will be a great night! Why not get a table together?

These books are just two of the CBCA shortlisted titles our current judges Felicia Harris and Anne-Marie Strother will be discussing at our third and final Judges Talk to be held at Wanneroo Public Library from 11.30am on Sunday 30 June.

For the price of a cup of coffee (if you're a CBCA WA member) you can hear all about these amazing books, enjoy delicious refreshments and maybe even win a bundle of books in our free raffle. If you need a professional learning certificate we can help with that too.

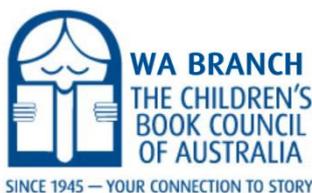

Why not gather a group of friends and colleagues together and come along?

Louise Bond, winner of the book bundle at the Armadale talk said "This was a very useful and informative event. I have plenty of information to take back to my teaching students. I'll be back next year."

A new librarian said "I found this overview of the books and the Q & A both interesting and useful. I can make informed choices about which of the books to purchase and the information will help me when advising borrowers about these books."
